

Dear FCC,

The Wisconsin blocking of telemarketers has been a blessing to our household. Our family actually can have dinner together without having the constant interruptions with phone calls from telemarketers. The annoying calls have stopped completely, since Wisconsin put into effect the new do not call list. Moving to a weaker federal standard will not be a good thing for my family. I urge you to continue supporting the Wisconsin ban on telemarketers. Thanks, John